

Privacy Policy

Hatteras is committed to protecting the privacy of our customers. As a provider of print and mail services, Hatteras creates marketing communications utilizing our diverse printing and custom fulfillment capabilities.

Our Privacy Policy is designed to help you understand how we collect and use personally identifiable information (Personal Information) that you provide us and to help you make informed decisions when using our website and services (collectively, Hatteras or Website).

By visiting or using any part of this website, you agree to the terms of this Privacy Policy as they may be amended from time to time. As we update our website over time, this Privacy Policy may change, so please check for updates.

Information Collection

When you visit our website, we may collect information related to your visit. This information helps us determine information about how you found our website, the date you visited our website, and the search engines that may have led you to our website. We collect this information to continually improve and enhance the functionality of the Hatteras website. We gather certain information automatically. This information may include IP addresses, browser type, Internet Service Provider (ISP), referring/exit pages, operating system, date/time stamp, and/or clickstream data. We link this automatically collected data to other information we collect about you.

The information you may provide us can be classified into two general types: user-provided information and website usage information. Both are discussed in greater detail below.

Personal Information You Choose To Provide

In order to provide the best experience when you visit our website, we may ask you for Personal Information. Personal Information includes, for example, your name and e-mail address, both of which you may be asked to provide when registering with Hatteras. A description of some of the ways that you may provide Personal Information to us, as well as further details on how we may use such Personal Information, is given below.

Contact Us/Feedback

If you email us using a 'Contact' link on our website, we may ask you for information such as your name and e-mail address so we can respond to your questions and comments. If you choose to correspond with us via e-mail, we may retain the content of your e-mail messages, your e-mail address and our response to you.

Surveys

We may occasionally ask website visitors to complete online surveys and opinion polls about their activities, attitudes and interests. These surveys help us improve our products and services. When asking for participation in these surveys, we may ask you to provide us with your name and email address.

Website Forms

Our website may offer visitors contact forms to request additional details and to download collateral. If you fill out one of our web forms, we may ask you for information such as your name and email address so we can respond to your questions and comments. If you choose to correspond with us via web forms, we may retain the form data which can include name, email address and other contact related details.

Website Usage Information

Cookies

When visiting Hatteras, we may use cookies on or in connection with our website to maintain information about you. A cookie is a very small text document, which often includes an anonymous unique identifier and additional information necessary to support the site's intended functionality. Hatteras uses session cookies. A session cookie is temporary and disappears after you close your browser.

Technologies such as cookies, beacons, tags and scripts are used by Hatteras and our marketing partners, analytics providers, and customer support systems. These technologies are used in analyzing trends, administering the site, tracking users' movements around the site, and to gather demographic information about our user base as a whole. We may receive reports based on the use of these technologies by these companies on an individual as well as aggregated basis.

We use cookies for marketing and for authentication. Users can control the use of cookies at the individual browser level. If you reject cookies, you may still use our website, but your ability to use some features or areas of our website may be limited.

Your Opt In/Opt Out Choices

You may opt in and/or opt out of certain uses of your Personal Information. For example, you may have the opportunity to choose whether you would like to receive email correspondence from us. Your Personal Information will not be shared with third-party service providers unless you give consent. You will have the opportunity to opt out of Hatteras marketing emails by clicking the 'Opt Out' or 'Unsubscribe' link in the email you receive. You can also request this by sending an email to privacy@hatteras.us.

Please take note that if you opt out of receiving promotional correspondence from us, we may still contact you in connection with your relationship, activities, transactions and communications with us.

Use, Disclosure and Sharing of Personal Information

Service Providers

We may use third-party partners to help us operate and maintain our website and deliver our products and services. We may also share your information with our service providers and other third parties (Affiliated Parties) that provide products or services for or through this website or for our business (such as website or infrastructure hosting companies, communications providers, email providers, analytics companies, credit card processing companies and other similar service providers that use such information on our behalf).

Third-party service providers are contractually restricted from using or disclosing the information, except as necessary to perform services on our behalf or to comply with legal requirements.

Compelled Disclosures

Hatteras may be required to disclose collected information in order to (i) respond to investigations, court orders or legal processes, (ii) investigate, prevent or take action regarding illegal activities, suspected fraud, potential threats to the physical safety of any person, (iii) respond to violations of Hatteras' terms of service, or (iv) act as otherwise required by law.

Your Ability To Access, Limit Use And Disclosure

You may request access to your personal data to update, correct, delete, or limit the use or disclosure of, your personal data.

Individuals wishing to view, update, delete, or supplement their personal data may do so by contacting the business that provided Hatteras your personal data directly to make your requests or, alternatively, you can submit your request through our Data Subject Access Request \(DSAR\) Portal. If the Hatteras DSAR portal is unavailable, requests can be sent to privacy@hatteras.us. Individuals outside the European Union (EU) may also use our Data Subject Access Request portal to submit complaints about your privacy and our collection or use of your Personal Information.

Security

We take reasonable and appropriate precautions, including administrative, technical, personnel, and physical measures, to safeguard personal data against loss, misuse, theft, and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, and destruction. We also use Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) encryption when transmitting sensitive information. Please keep in mind that due to the inherent nature of the Internet, there is no way to make the transmission of electronic data entirely safe from intrusion.

Your Ability to Choose How Your Data is to be Used

Individuals may opt in and/or opt out of certain uses of your Personal Information. For details on how you can exercise your choices, please refer to the 'Your Opt/In Opt/Out Choices' section of this Privacy Policy.

COPPA (Children Online Privacy Protection Act)

When it comes to the collection of personal information from children under 13, the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA) puts parents in control. The Federal Trade Commission, the nation's consumer protection agency, enforces the COPPA Rule, which spells out what operators of websites and online services must do to protect children's privacy and safety online. We do not specifically market to children under 13.

Fair Information Practices

The Fair Information Practices Principles form the backbone of privacy law in the United States and the concepts they include have played a significant role in the development of data protection laws around the globe. Understanding the Fair Information Practice Principles and how they should be implemented is critical to comply with the various privacy laws that protect personal information.

In order to be in line with Fair Information Practices we will take the following responsive action, should a data breach occur:

- We will notify the users via email Within 7 business days
- We also agree to the individual redress principle, which requires that individuals have a right to pursue legally enforceable rights against data collectors and processors who fail to adhere to the law. This principle requires not only that individuals have enforceable rights against data users, but also that individuals have recourse to courts or a government agency to investigate and/or prosecute non-compliance by data processors.

CAN-SPAM Act

The CAN-SPAM Act is a law that sets the rules for commercial email, establishes requirements for commercial messages, gives recipients the right to have emails stopped from being sent to them, and spells out tough penalties for violations.

To be in accordance with CAN-SPAM we agree to the following:

If at any time you would like to unsubscribe from receiving future emails, you can email us at privacy@hatteras.us and we will promptly remove you from ALL correspondence.

US Regional Privacy Notice

This Notice explains how we collect, use, and disclose your Personal Information. It also describes how to exercise your rights under the California Consumer Privacy Act, the Colorado Privacy Act, the Connecticut Act Concerning Personal Data Privacy and Online Monitoring, the Massachusetts Information Privacy Act, the Nevada Privacy of Information Collected on the Internet from Consumers Act, the New York Privacy Act, the Utah Consumer Privacy Act, and the Virginia Consumer Data Protection Act. We call these laws collectively the "U.S. Privacy Laws."

When we say "Personal Information" in this Notice, we mean information that identifies, relates to, describes, is reasonably capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked with you, directly or indirectly. Personal Information does not include information that cannot be reasonably linked to you.

How we collect, use, and disclose Personal Information

To provide the products or features offered by Hatteras we process information about you, including Personal Information, whether or not you have an account or are logged in. To learn about the types of information we collect and how we use it, you can review our Privacy Policy.

Subject to the limitations we describe in our Privacy Policy, we may disclose your Personal Information for business purposes, with strict restrictions on how our partners can use and disclose the data we provide. We may also disclose it at your direction or in other ways that are in accordance with the U.S. Privacy Laws. We don't "share" your Personal Information, as defined in the California Consumer Privacy Act ("CCPA"). Hatteras does not sell, rent, or lease your personally identifiable information to third parties, nor does Hatteras derive any part of our revenue or receive any discounts or compensation from such sales.

We collect information that identifies, relates to, describes, references, is capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular consumer or device ("personal information"). Consumer's Rights

Depending on where you live and subject to certain exceptions, you may have some or all of the following rights:

- Right to Correct: You have the right to request the correction of any inaccurate personal information that we maintain about you, considering the nature of the personal information and the purposes of the processing of the personal information. We will use commercially reasonable efforts to correct the inaccurate personal information as you may direct.
- Right to Know: The right to request that we disclose to you the Personal Information we collect, use, or disclose, and information about our data practices.
- Right to Request Deletion: The right to request that we delete your Personal Information that we have collected from or about you.
- Right to Opt Out: The right to opt out of the processing of your Personal Information that have obtained from or about you.
- Right to Non-Discrimination: The right not to receive discriminatory treatment for exercising your privacy rights.

- Do Not Track: [Company] does not track its customers over time and across third-party websites to provide targeted advertising and therefore does not respond to Do Not Track (DNT) signals. Third parties that have content embedded on [Company] websites such as a social feature may set cookies on a user's browser and/or obtain information about the fact that a web browser visited a specific Company website from a certain IP address. Third parties cannot collect any other personal information from Company's websites unless you provide it to them directly.

To submit a request to exercise your rights, and as applicable, to appeal a consumer rights action, please visit our Data Subject Access Rights Portal or email us at privacy@hatteras.us.

If you choose to submit a request, you must provide us with enough information to identify you (e.g., your first and last name and email address) and enough specificity on the requested data. We will only use the information we receive to respond to your request. We will not be able to disclose information if we cannot verify that the person making the Consumer Request is the person about whom we collected information, or someone authorized to act on such person's behalf. We will verify your request by comparing the information you provide with the information we have on you and, if your request is submitted by an authorized agent, we will require you to provide signed, written permission for such agent to act on your behalf.

Transfers of Personal Data

The Services are hosted and operated in the United States ("U.S.") through and its service providers, and if you do not reside in the U.S., laws in the U.S. may differ from the laws where you reside. By using the Services, you acknowledge that any Personal Data about you, regardless of whether provided by you or obtained from a third party, is being provided in the U.S. and will be hosted on U.S. servers, and you authorize [Company] to transfer, store and process your information to and in the U.S., and possibly other countries.

Security

To help protect the privacy of data and personally identifiable information you transmit through use of this site and any other related services, we maintain physical, technical and administrative safeguards. We update and test our security technology on an ongoing basis. We restrict access to your personal data to those employees who need to know that information to provide benefits or services to you. In addition, we train our employees about the importance of confidentiality and maintaining the privacy and security of your information. We commit to taking appropriate disciplinary measures to enforce our employees' privacy responsibilities. A copy of our written Information Security Plan is available upon request - contact us to request a copy.

Contact Us

If you have any questions or comments about this Privacy Policy, or if you would like to review, delete or update information we have about you or your preferences, requests should be submitted through our Data Subject Access Request \(DSAR\) Portal.

If the Hatteras DSAR portal is unavailable, requests can be sent to privacy@hatteras.us or our mailing address:
